CLASSIC MEETS MODERN:

An Expression of Traditional Chinese Brush Painting

Jennifer Yuan 袁峥

2022

About artist

Jennifer Yuan 袁崢 was born and grew up in Shanghai China. She grew up with limited exposure to traditional Chinese painting because that was the period when the Cultural Revolution had just ended and all the “bad old stuff” were not available.

“My grandparents lived in Suzhou China for many years and my mother grew up in Suzhou. During those years, my grandfather collected and painted many Chinese brush paintings and taught my mother calligraphy. Sadly, all of the artworks from my family were destroyed during the Cultural Revolution.”

Jennifer came to the United States to study advanced science and technology. She worked as an IT professional and lived in the Philadelphia suburb for over twenty years. She started to learn Chinese brush painting from Mr. Huangxin (Derek) Wang at Guanghua Chinese School in Blue Bell, Pennsylvania. Over the years, different styles of artworks have given her inspiration to her art practice.

Nature is her favorite theme. She has painted a variety of subjects including peony, rose, lotus flower, wisteria, plum blossom, orchid, bamboo, chrysanthemum, fish, trees, mountains and water.

“There are feelings, emotions, and ideals in nature. Traditionally, they are perceived to symbolize character traits, good fortune, or dreamland. I find that they are still quite relevant today.”

Jennifer uses traditional Chinese painting brushes, ink, and limited color palette to paint on delicate rice paper. Her paintings range from 8.5 in x 13 in (21 cm x 33 cm), 13 in x 17 in (33 cm x 43 cm), 20 in x 27 in (51 cm x 68 cm), 24 in x 36 in (61 cm x 92 cm), 27 in x 54 in (68 cm x 137 cm). Custom size and subject upon request.

Jennifer currently lives in Princeton, New Jersey. She teaches Chinese brush painting at Arts Council of Princeton and West Windsor Arts Council. She is also a docent volunteer of Princeton University Art Museum.
